Accommodation Ratings

STAR and DIAMOND ratings are used throughout the brochure to describe the standard of accommodation.

STAR RATINGS Properties bearing the STAR symbols are independently assessed by AAA Tourism, the national tourism body of the Australian Auto Clubs. The STARS and the STAR Rating Scheme are a Registered Trademark of AAA Tourism Pty Ltd. Travelpoint Holidays has no input into the assessment process.

DIAMOND RATINGS Properties bearing Diamond symbols do not participate in a recognised rating scheme. The rating is supplied by the individual property based on their own assessment. We therefore recommend they be used as a guide only.

Apartment Style Accommodation

In general, self catering apartments feature cooking facilities with a minimum of microwave, hot plates, saucepans, crockery, cutlery and cooking utensils. Laundry facilities will be located either in the apartment, or in a guest laundry within the property. Most apartments are serviced every 7 days and do not provide hotel facilities such as porterage, room service or mini bars. Most apartments provide an initial supply of items such as tea, coffee, soap and toilet paper.

What the Symbols mean

- Kids Club facilities are available. Check listings for details.
- Day spa facilities are available.
- The property has one or more rooms providing wheelchair access with assistance.
- A bonus is available if you are celebrating a special occasion (eg. honeymoon). Advise your travel agent when booking. The definition of 'special occasion' and type of bonus offered is at each property's discretion. Conditions may apply.

Pricing Guide

Prices featured in accommodation listings are per room for the period specified unless otherwise stated. The from price in the property heading has been calculated using the cheapest nightly rate available, ie. in the lead-in room type, in off-peak season using the longest stay (eg. 7 nights). If a free night offer is available, even if for part of a season, this has been included when calculating the from price. A minimum stay is generally required. Where prices for more than a one night stay are featured, the prices refer to stays of consecutive nights. We are always sourcing great deals throughout the year, so we recommend you use the prices in this brochure as a guide only and ask your travel agent for the best available deal for your travel period.

Visas And Passports

A valid passport and a return or onward ticket are required when travelling to the South Pacific. In most cases the passport must be valid for 6 months beyond the intended stay. A visa is not required for Australian or New Zealand passport holders for stays of 30 days or less.

Castaway Island, Fiji

It's safe to say you'll have the island getaway of your dreams in Fiji. Especially if when you close your eyes, you see palm lined beaches, clear lagoons, volcanic islands and lush rainforests that combine for a holiday setting that's part relaxation spot, part adventure paradise.

With more than 300 islands to choose from, you don't have to see it all to get the full Fiji experience. On the Coral Coast, live in the lap of luxury amid resorts and stunning beaches. Skip over to the Pacific Coast for an adventure playground of snorkelling, diving and island culture. At Denarau, tee off at the champion golf course or take a trip across to Mamanuca and Yasawa Islands.

For a slice of traditional Fiji, northern Taveuni and Vanua Levu islands are all about enjoying life among the rainforest and the ocean. The whole country is a place where residents and visitors alike can't help but smile. In fact, the island hospitality is a big part of Fiji's appeal. Whether you're sharing in a traditional tea ceremony, listening to stories passed down through generations or marvelling at the ritual of firewalking, you'll fall in love with the Fijian people.

The great thing about Fiji is you can take it as hectic or as laid-back as you like. Trek mountains and rainforest landscapes before diving the wrecks or just cruise on a yacht before a seafood feast and sunset stroll hand-in-hand on the beach. Whatever your island fantasy, Fiji makes it happen.

Our Favourites

Denarau and Sonaisali Island

Sheraton Denarau Villas

Our Favourites

Play a round of golf on the 18 hole championship golf course

Take a jet boat ride on the Nadi River

Indulge in some retail therapy at the marina complex

Experience the thrill of parasailing

Enjoy a poolside cocktail at one of the many resorts

A short drive from Nadi, Denarau Island is easily accessible with a causeway that separates the island from Viti Levu. The whole place is a playground of resorts, golfing, man-made lakes and canals. With so much to do, it's the ideal spot for everything from a romantic escape to a family getaway.

Cruise ships sail into the picturesque harbour while tall ships whisk you away to the Mamanuca and Yasawa islands for snorkelling, swimming and sunset cocktails. The 18 hole course of Denarau Golf and Racquet Club is a golfer's dream.

The list of activities on the island is a mile long. Try jet-skiing, snorkelling, kayaking or sailing. If you have any energy left, spend it at Port Denarau, where you can browse the shops or tempt your tastebuds with seafood or Italian cuisine. Some of the best restaurants in Fiji are found here.

Take in the sweeping views of Nadi from the Nausori Highlands

Have lunch at the Suva Yacht Club, tee off at the golf course or take advantage of the many restaurants and bars.

Nadi in the west is the gateway to the spectacular islands and regions of Fiji. Beautiful beaches and fields of cane surround beachfront resorts, just a 20 minute drive from the airport. Head to shops and restaurants in the main street or hit the markets for crafts and jewellery before a visit to a Swami Temple.

All throughout the island traditional life is on show. Take in the spectacle of firewalking at your hotel or take a tour of the rugged interior, through rivers and rainforests past waterfalls and native wildlife. Travel through scenic fields of sugar cane and traditional villages to the city of Lautoka, down the mountains past Viti Levu Bay and on to unspoilt Rakiraki. If your idea of a South Pacific holiday mixes island relaxation with once-in-a-lifetime adventures, then Vanuatu is for you. Villagers open their communities with a welcome that's as warm as the tropical sun. Dine on traditional food, dance to the music of string bands and join villagers in kava drinking as the sun goes down. Master the art of relaxation at day spas or golf the island way on white sand and waterfront.

A harbour city lifestyle of restaurants, watersports and market shopping greets you at Port Vila. Scuba diving, fishing or just strolling on the beach are all acceptable activities in the Vanuatu capital. If the mood strikes you, walk to the top of Klems Hill, stopping off for a dip in freshwater pools along the way.

One of the more traditional areas, Tanna Island is a haven of adventure and intrigue. Peer into the fiery rim of Yasur volcano. And since you're on an island, you have to take advantage of the water. Swim in underwater caves, snorkel the coral reef or trek inland to incredible waterfalls.

Just when you think you've found the best beaches, more islands challenge your view. Espiritu Santo is a little-known paradise for world-class diving, while the island of Pentecost fascinates with its culture. See local tribesmen jump from bamboo towers with vines tied to their ankles between the months of April and June. It's just one of the experiences that makes Vanuatu so exciting.

Tonga is a kingdom of white sandy beaches, coconut groves and some of the best fishing in the South Pacific. Make your way around each of the three main island groups for some incredible island experiences. You could find yourself snorkelling with humpback whales, taking in a traditional dance performance, or gaining insight into the local culture with a visit to the local market in each island group.

Tongatapu Island is fit for a king – literally. The royal family lives here in the capital Nuku'alofa. Ready to explore? Seek out the mysterious Ha'amonga a'Maui Trilithon, the Stonehenge of the South Pacific. Discover the Anahulu cave, a stalactite cave with an underground swimming pool. Head south to take in the spectacle of the Mapu'a 'a Vaca blowholes.

In the water, snorkelling among coral islands is an unforgettable experience. Divers enter a whole other world at the Ha'apai Islands. Come across whales as you dive among coral reefs or see them from the surface as you kayak through uninhabited islands. The volcanic scenery of Kao and Tofua makes for some spectacular views.

Not to be outdone, the third main group, the Vava'u Islands, are picturesque at every turn. Visitors come from all around to sail tranquil waters among coral reefs. Protected coves make for perfect diving. Find restaurants and bars on Neiafu, or stay on the quieter islands where you'll master the art of lazing in the sun.

The ten islands of Samoa could easily be your new top ten must see destinations of the South Pacific. Nestled just south of Papua New Guinea, each of Samoa's islands offers something different. See rugged volcanic peaks one day, sparkling beaches and lagoons the next.

The main islands are the ideal spot to perfect your leisure pursuits. Keen for a walk? Stroll bush trails among the national parks of Upolu. You can't go past this scenery, with lava cliffs that front the ocean and views of the entire Pacific from Mt Alava. At Piula Cave, swim in an incredible freshwater pool right on the oceanfront or head to the Aleipata district for swimming, snorkelling and even more beachside relaxation. Head to the northern end of Upolu Island and explore the harbour town of Apia.

Those with an appetite for adventure will love Savai'i. The largely uninhabited island fascinates with its incredible scenery. A roaring jetstream shoots hundreds of metres into the air at the Alofaaga blowholes. At Afu Aau Falls, bathe in a secluded waterhole deep in the jungle. Want more? Seek out the Pulemelei Step Pyramid, a mysterious monument of ancient Samoa. Top it all off with a hike through old plantations and untouched rainforest to volcanic craters that spread lava across the island a century ago. No doubt about it, this is the stuff of holiday legend.

Our Favourites

Visit Norfolk Island Museum

Stroll through Old Kingston Town

Enjoy local hospitality with a progressive dinner in island homes

Relax with a picnic at Captain Cook's Monument

Explore the many island walking tracks

Snorkel the coral reef just offshore at Emily Bay

Fly into Norfolk Island and find yourself in another world. It's a subtropical paradise with a fascinating history and culture, fresh island food, locally produced wine and coffee, all at a pace that's most serene. Everything is so relaxed you'll soon adopt the hassle-free approach the locals have to life.

The people of Norfolk share stories of the island's fascinating history. Hear stories of the Bounty mutineers. Some islanders will even open their homes, with groups of four families hosting progressive dinner parties. Some even speak their own language – a sing-song blend of Old English and Tahitian that is one of the rarest in the world.

Spectacular scenery lends itself to time outdoors. Take your pick from any number of sports, from golf and tennis to lawn bowls or horse riding. See local artisans at work, with an impressive array of weaving and pottery up for sale. You can even learn to hula from the traditional Tahitian descendants to the island.

Add some action to the itinerary. Snorkel or scuba dive the coral reef in some of the clearest waters around. More than 30 dive sites range from the safety of the lagoon to the thrill of open water. Take to the hills for a walk beneath the tallest tree ferns on earth.

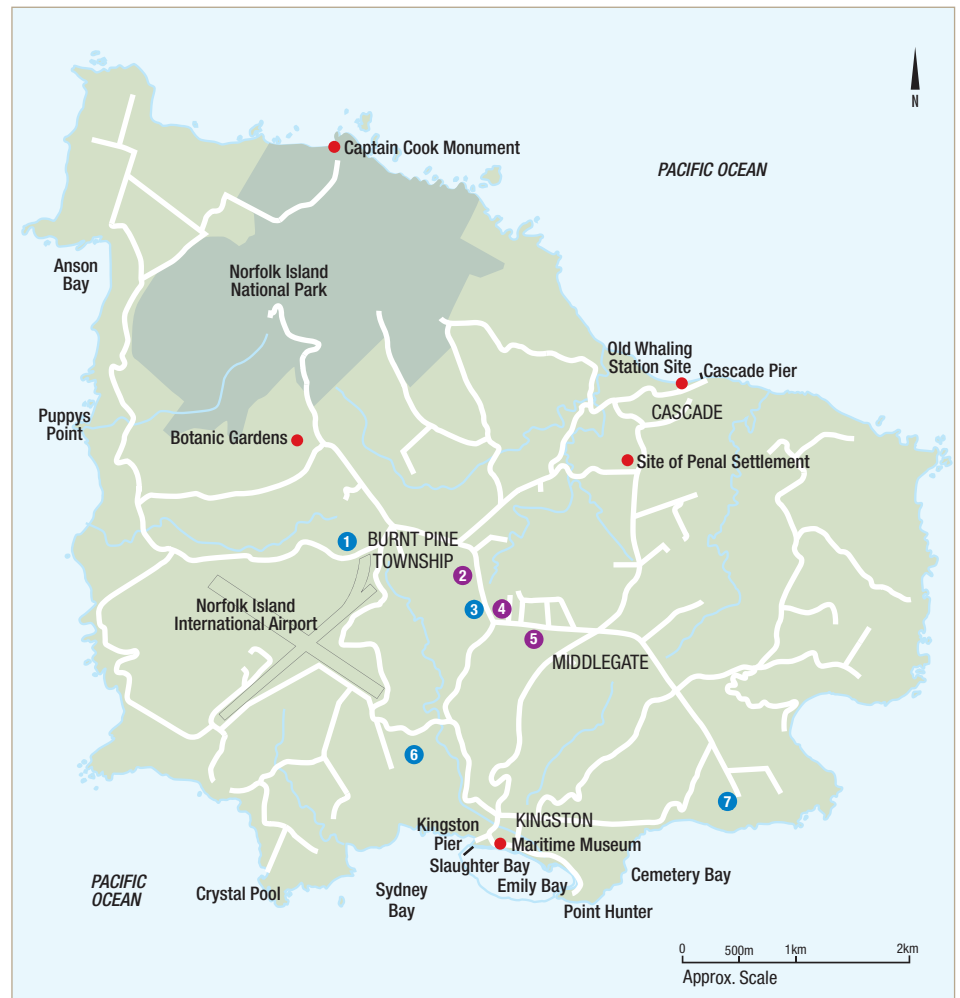

Easily accessible by air from Sydney, Brisbane, Melbourne, Newcastle and Auckland, Norfolk Island is one of the world's most unique and special destinations.

All prices are subject to availability and can be withdrawn or varied without notice. Prices are provided as a guide only and may vary due to changes in surcharges, fees or taxes or due to currency fluctuations. Please check all prices, conditions and information with your travel agent before booking.

The price of your holiday may change at any time up to 30 days before your departure if any new surcharges, fees or taxes are introduced or if any existing surcharges, fees or taxes are varied, even after you have paid all or part of the quoted price of your holiday.

If we have to change any part of your booking for reasons beyond our control, for example, an Accommodation Supplier overbooks accommodation, or if there is an increase in taxes or Supplier charges, we will notify you. If any such changes result in your holiday costing more or otherwise being materially different from that originally booked, then you may cancel the holiday and we will refund any monies already paid less any charges levied by Suppliers.

Some Suppliers may impose conditions that vary from the conditions stated in this brochure. Please ask your travel agent at the time of booking if different conditions apply.

CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS

Prices in this brochure are for payments made by cash. A credit card surcharge will apply when paying by credit card. Please check this fee with your travel agent before booking.

Final Payment

Full payment of your holiday cost must be made no later than 30 days prior to travel, or by sale end date, or by the payment deadline specified in individual package conditions, whichever is earliest. For bookings made 30 days or less prior to travel, full payment of holiday cost is required at the time your booking is confirmed.

Please ensure payments are made by the due dates. If this does not happen, our computer system automatically cancels the booking without notice or liability to you.

Only upon payment of the full cost of your holiday do you have a final booking with the Supplier of the relevant good and/or service. In arranging your booking, Travelpoint Holidays is acting as the agent of the Supplier of the relevant Product and at no time do you have a contract with Travelpoint Holidays.
